

Johnny Cash would have celebrated his 80th birthday On February 26th. However, fans in Europe will be celebrating the day, and remembering the Man in Black at the second German Johnny Cash Day in Sassenberg (details www.justlikecash.de).

One of the top performers will be Ireland's premier Johnny Cash tribute act, Finbarr "Barry" Winters, who has performed all over Europe, New York, and on a number of cruises. Finbarr takes an active interest in the plight of the wild mustangs, and one of his compositions "Wild Horses" is featured on www.wildmustangcoalition.org.

German Johnny Cash Day is a day-long event and stars Europe's top Johnny Cash tributes such as Heinrich Doc Wolf, Gunter Gabriel and as mentioned, Finbarr. There will be parking for camper vans, and on-site facilities. German Johnny Cash Day has now become a "must" for fans, not just of the Man in Black, but also for all country music fans. You can find out more about Finbarr at his website www.strictlycash.net.
